General terms and conditions of the International Workshop for Guitar 18th of August to 20th of August 2017

Selection

There is no age limit for participation in the class. The selection process for Workshop participants, as to active participation, solo performances is in the hands of the professor.

All selection decisions are final without appeal.

All concerts and evening music presentations to which the participants are committed in principle, are to be performed free of charge.

Lessons

Each participant gets one individual lesson with focus on posture, technical issues and issues of interpretation as well as two ensemble lessons in which will be worked out a composition for guitar ensemble. The score will be sent out before.

Language

The master class is held in German, English and Russian.

Passive participation

Those who are not accepted as active participants may attend the course as passive auditors. The difference in active and passive course costs will in this case be refunded.

Grants and reductions

A very little number of grants and reductions in the class costs can be made available for talented students with financial need as an exception. An appropriate application form must reach birdmusic (info@bird-music.de) (deadline July 14th, 2017). The following information should be enclosed:

- particulars concerning your financial situation
- recommendations of a teacher
- proof of a recognized musical education.

A selection commission will consider the applications and inform those by written confirmation.

Fees

Participation fee € 450.-; Registration fee € 150.-. The participation fee is including the accommodation in Arlberg Hospiz Hotel by full board/Vollpension (three meals during the day/drei Mahlzeiten am Tag) in double rooms together with another participant of the same gender.

Payment

All payments made to the above mentioned account must be marked „spesenfrei für den Empfänger“ (free of charge for the receiver). The registration fee of 150.- € is to be paid immediately with the registration. The remaining balance is to be paid after the audition to the account or directly to the secretary's office of arlberg1800. The students will receive their attendance cards and further information about the lessons after the results of the audition are known and when the course fees have been paid in full.
